Formula for Team Success

Team success is built on a foundation of purpose, behaviors, commitment, and support. If any one or more of these are missing, the team success will be difficult to achieve and sustain.

C.A.R.E. Framework for Work Product Success

Clarity

Continually gain and provide clarity of team purpose, roles and responsibilities, and the definition and progress of team success.

Alignment

Ensure each team member is aligned and that the team purpose and work product are aligned to support organizational success.

Resources

Once clarity and alignment are achieved, identify the people, technology, processes/ systems, and training/tools that facilitate success.

Enable

Create the communication plans, reinforcement tools, measures, and ongoing leader support to enable sustained success.
